

2011 FALL CONFERENCE

Survivor: Arizona

New Ideas for Tough Times

All K-16 second language educators, students, administrators, and friends of the profession are cordially invited to attend AZLA's Fall Mini-Conference.

ONE-DAY CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

- Our featured guest, Dr. Gregory H. Wolf, Department of Modern and Classical Languages, North Central College in Naperville, IL, will present twice, once on Saturday morning and again in the afternoon, to accommodate attendees' schedules. Go to the www.azla-online.org to read more about Gregory and his workshop: Meeting the Challenges of the 21st Century: Language Program Building through Advocacy, Articulation, and Outreach. He enthusiastically notes that "participants will be very actively involved".
